Why is personal data collected by the League?

- Personal data is collected in order to pursue the legitimate interests of the League. This is the lawful basis for which we collect information, and there is therefore no need to obtain specific consent.
- Examples of what data is collected include:
 - Data necessary for communication with teams by telephone or email.
 - Information for recording results with the organisations such as the English Chess Federation and the Welsh Chess Union.
 - Game results – for league and grading purposes, and showing results on the website

Personal data will be:

- Stored securely and appropriately.
- Used only for the purpose for which it is collected.
- It will be accessed and used by the appropriate people.
- It will only be passed on to people outside the League for legitimate reasons.
- Data will only be kept for as long as is necessary.

The Website.

- The website may use software to monitor visitors and which pages they visit. It does not collect or store personal information other than that freely given.
- The website includes records of results and other information regarding the activities of League.
- Photographs of individuals will be only used with permission.
- Information freely left by visitors' messages will be kept.
- The website will use information in accordance with this Data Protection Policy.

Modifications to this policy.

- This Policy should be reviewed annually at the League's AGM and amended as necessary.
